1

Lord, when we treat with disdain
those of a different creed: –
Muslim, Bahai or Hindu, Buddhist and other faiths too,
may we remember that you formed by birth, culture, belief
Were a Jew.

2

When we accept without fear each has an offering to make:
gifts of discernment, keen mind, searching God's wisdom to find,
treading the pathway assigned,
strengthen the faith that we hold,
Make us kind.

3

Prejudice, hatred, mistrust bring the earth nothing but pain.
Loving requires open hearts,
sharing the truths God imparts;
discussion means progress starts;
learning of different views,
Fear departs.

4

Seeking to live in a world where all develop their skills, peaceful, co-operative, just,
ignorance crumbles to dust;
we work with hope as we must;
make us aware of our role,
Give us trust.
